

'BOZO' TO MAKE PERSONAL APPEARANCE AT TOY KING

"Bozo" the bulb-nosed, big-footed buffoon who stars on KTLA's "Bozo, the Clown," Monday through Friday, 6:00 p.m., will appear in person at Toy King on Saturday, October 15, 1960, at 10:00 a.m.

"Bozo," also known as the Prince of Pandemonium, will bring along his bag of magic tricks, which means many prizes and surprises are in store for the small fry.

On his daily show, "Bozo" present "big top" sets and animals, and has won thousands of young fans with his "Bozo's Adventures," in which his cartoon counterpart stars in amazing and delightful animated stories.

Vance Colvig, who portrays "Bozo," started his KTLA show immediately after finishing a tour with the "Greatest Show on Earth," Ringling Bros. Barnum and Bailey Circus, and has imparted a genuine circus flavor to his TV circus, even using real sawdust on the floor of the center ring.

"Bozo" says he's looking forward to meeting his many young friends in this area in person, and promises that they can all take part in the fun when he makes his special visit.
